12-day tenpin bowling World Championships rolls to a close

By Buford Davis | THP

The final pins have fallen. More than 500 of the world's most elite bowlers from 27 nations have competed over the last 12 days in the World Tenpin Bowling Association 2013 World Championships. The competition, hosted in Henderson's Strike Zone Bowling Center inside Sunset Station, determined the world title holders in singles, doubles, trios and team competition for both men and women. South Korea's Seo-Yeon Ryu took the women's singles title, crushing second place Ya-Ting Wang of Chinese Tai Pei by 42 pins in the final, Aug. 20. Chinese Tai Pei's Chiung-Yao Huang finished third. Bill O'Neill of the United States won the men's singles title, beating Bodo Konieczny of Germany by 36 pins in the final, Aug. 19. Martin Larsen of Sweden finished third.

The United States won the women's doubles title, with Stefanie Nation and Shannon O'Keefe defeating fellow Americans Kelly Kulick and Missy Parkin by 44 pins in the final. Australia's Ann-Maree Putney and Carol Gianotti finished third. The United States also took gold in men's doubles, with John Szczerbinski and Chris Barnes topping Finland's Pasi Uotila and Osku Palermaa in the final, Aug. 21. The USA also took bronze. South Korea's Seo-Yuen Ryu took her second gold Aug. 26, winning the women's trios with teammates Na-

Officers involved in Boulder Highway shooting identified

Three members of HPD fired weapons in Aug. 20 shootout with Edward Scheboth

By Buford Davis | THP

The Henderson Police Department has released the names of the officers involved in the fatal shooting of the man accused of ambushing a fourth officer on Boulder Highway, Aug. 20. Henderson police officers Achim Brunette, Jason Dunn and Travis Nusbaum discharged their weapons when fired upon by Edward John Scheboth, 63. Scheboth was killed by a gunshot wound to the head after being transported to Sunrise Hospital. It is unknown if he sustained additional wounds. The incident began around 8 a.m. when Scheboth fired a handgun at an unnamed officer was conducting traffic control on southbound Boulder Highway near College Drive. Several bullets struck her vehicle, shattering the driver's side rear window. The officer managed to pull away from the immediate location and radio for assistance. Achim, Dunn and Nusbaum were at the nearby traffic accident scene responded, locating Scheboth standing in the median
